South-Carolina Gazette.
From MONDAY March 27th, to FRIDAY April 7th, 1749.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 3.

On Tuesday last the new Commons House of Assembly of this Province met pursuant to the Directions of the Writs: And on Friday (having constituted a House) they waited on the Governor in Council with a Speaker, whom his Excellency was pleased to approve of. The same Day the Governor opened the Session, by the following SPEECH to both Houses.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the Assembly.

WE are at length met in General Assembly, and we have Power to enact such Laws, Statutes and Ordinances as may be proper for our Welfare, Peace and good Government, not repugnant to the Laws of Great-Britain; and to lay on such Taxes as may be necessary for the Support of the Province, the preserving the Public Faith and Credit, and paying our just Debts. These are glorious Privileges, and every worthy Member of the Community must wish, that they may be transmitted perfect and entire to our latest Posterity. This will depend much on our own Conduct, and therefore it is of great Importance, that we should, in this General Assembly, make a right Use and Improvement of the Blessings we at present enjoy.

We have had many signal and substantial Proofs of the Royal Favour within the Space of a few Years, but I shall confine myself to the Compass of a few Months, in which his Majesty has been graciously pleased to give a considerable Bounty upon Indico, as an Encouragement to that new Manufacture and Product in this Country. His Majesty has been also graciously pleased, for the future Ease of the Inhabitants of this Province, to give Directions, that the Sum of Three Thousand Pounds Sterling be Annually laid out in Great-Britain, for purchasing Presents for the Indians in Amity with us, one half to be distributed here, and the other half in the neighbouring Colony of Georgia: And as the Cherokees have frequently importuned us to build a Fort in their Country, to enable them to exclude their and our Enemies; I have received his Majesty's Orders, to treat with that Nation, for the Purchase of a convenient Spot of Ground for building of a Fort there, at the Expence of the Crown. But there was still one Thing wanting to crown and compleat our Happiness, and to render this one of the greatest and most flourishing Provinces in the King's Dominions, and That is, that there should be a Peace; and I have the Pleasure to acquaint you, that his Majesty has procured a safe and honourable Peace for all his Dominions, and for his Allies; the definitive Treaty having been signed, by the Ministers of all the Powers concerned in the War, in October last. Permit me to congratulate you upon this glorious Event, which all Ranks of People in this Province have so long and so ardently pray'd for. These Things I but mention, being sensible that the bare Recital of them is sufficient to inspire the most loyal Sentiments and Expressions. I hope we shall express our Loyalty and Gratitude, by our dutiful Behaviour, in doing chearfully such Things as the Crown has Reason to expect from us. And as I am informed by the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, that they have received Complaints from the Merchants of the bad Quality of the Carolina Indico, it is expected that we make some Law, to prevent and detect all Faults or Frauds that may be committed in manufacturing and exporting our Indico. The many other Products of the Province are not to be neglected, but Rice and Indico are the two Pillars upon which our future Prosperity must be built. In Rice we are unrival'd, let us try to excel in Indico also.

This, and the Tax-Bill, is all I shall at present recommend to you: However, if any others be thought necessary, I shall chearfully give my Assent to them, provided they are agreeable to his Majesty's Instructions to me, and tend to advance the Happiness and secure the Welfare of the Province, which I have very much at Heart.

JAMES GLEN.

The ADDRESS of the UPPER-HOUSE of Assembly, To his Excellency JAMES GLEN, Esq; Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Council of this Province, met in General Assembly, beg Leave to return our Thanks, for your Excellency's Speech delivered to both Houses at the opening the present Session.

We are truly sensible of the glorious Privilege we enjoy of making Laws, Statutes and Ordinances for our own Welfare and good Government, and for the laying on such Taxes as may be necessary for the Support of the Province; And we shall therefore endeavour to make a right Use and Improvement of so valuable a Blessing, and to transmit the same perfect and entire to our latest Posterity.

The many signal Proofs of the Royal Favour which this Province hath, on several Occasions, heretofore received, are deeply imprinted on our Minds; and those recent Marks of his Majesty's paternal Care and Kindness communicated by your Excellency, fill us with the most grateful Sentiments; as the honourable Peace which his Majesty hath procured for his Subjects and Allies, doth with the sincerest Joy. Of all which we purpose to express our Sense to his Majesty, as well by a dutiful Address, as by doing chearfully whatever can be expected from us.

The detecting and preventing all Faults and Frauds that may be committed in our new Manufacture of Indico, will have our immediate and close Attention, in order to secure that important Acquisition to our Trade and Commerce, and to merit the Bounty bestowed upon it. And we doubt not of your Excellency's giving a chearful Assent to that, or any other Bills that may be framed to advance the Happiness and Welfare of this Province, and which your Excellency may think not inconsistent with your Instructions.

In the Upper House of Assembly, the 31st Day of March, 1749.

By Order of the House,
EDMOND ATKIN.

To which Address his Excellency was pleased to make the following Answer.

Honourable Gentlemen,

I THANK you for this Address, so loyal and dutiful to his Majesty. And I assure you, that as I have found my Administration made easy to me, by the Advice and Assistance of his Majesty's Council, I intend, in all Things that regard the Government, to advise with you, and will take no Steps without so doing.

To His Excellency
JAMES GLEN, Esquire,
Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Commons House of Assembly of the said Province.

May

May it please your Excellency,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons House of Assembly of this Province, now met in General Assembly, beg Leave to return our sincere and hearty Thanks for your Excellency's Speech this Day delivered to us, and to congratulate with your Excellency, on the welcome and desirable News, of a Peace having been restored to Europe, after so long and ruinous a War to this Province, and which we humbly implore and beseech the Great Governor of the Universe, and Disposer of all Events, not only to continue through our Time, but also to our latest Posterity.

As his Majesty's paternal Care and Tenderness of all his Subjects, and Ourselves in particular, have been evidenced on many Occasions, so it is with the warmest Gratitude, we acknowledge, the Royal Favours and Bounty exhibited in His Majesty's late Præmium and Encouragement bestowed upon us, not only to cultivate and improve Indico, the Produce of our own Soil, but also to defray our annual Expences in the Presents we were necessarily obliged to make to our neighbouring Indians: And this House begs Leave to assure your Excellency, that they will embrace the first Opportunity of returning their humble and hearty Thanks to His Majesty, for these and all other gracious Instances of His Royal Favour and Regard towards us.

And, we farther beg Leave to assure your Excellency, that we shall, with the greatest Chearfulness and Alacrity, take under our serious Consideration, the several Matters recommended in your Excellency's Speech; and shall endeavour, by our Behaviour, to prove ourselves dutiful and loyal Subjects to His Majesty, and diligent and faithful Servants of our Country, which we conceive to be the most acceptable Service we can perform, to a King whose Glory it is to make the Laws of the Land the only Rule of His Government, and who esteems it his own greatest Happiness to make his People happy.
